

Full Disclosure Ahead

What's up with the flurry of news worldwide about the three UFO's shot down by the US Air Force in the wake of an alleged Chinese balloon flying over America? Why was the White House press secretary casually mentioning that there is "no indication of aliens or extra-terrestrial activity with these recent takedowns", as if it's a normal thing to say that these objects could have been the result of aliens or extra-terrestrial activity. Is all the media attention, and the subtext that ET spacecrafts are a distinct reality we can now address without looking foolish, pointing to a soft disclosure and admission of what has been pretty obvious to most people for years?

According to the reputed Pew Research Center...

Most Americans believe in intelligent life beyond Earth; few see UFOs as a major national security threat - JUNE 30, 2021

<https://www.pewresearch.org/fact-tank/2021/06/30/most-americans-believe-in-intelligent-life-beyond-earth-few-see-ufos-as-a-major-national-security-threat/>

As an unprecedented U.S. intelligence report brings new attention to the phenomenon of unidentified flying objects, about two-thirds of Americans (65%) say their best guess is that intelligent life exists on other planets, according to a Pew Research Center survey conducted just before the release of the government assessment. A smaller but still sizable share of the public (51%) says that UFOs reported by people in the military are likely evidence of intelligent life outside Earth. CLIP

So perhaps it is about time we stop with the charade that we don't know yet if life exists elsewhere on some habitable planet in this galaxy teeming with 400 billion stars and even more billions of orbiting planet, in an infinite universe whose edge has never been seen.

What is tricky for the US in-the-know intelligentsia is how to disclose the fact that multiple secret space programs have achieved intergalactic travels decades ago using retroengineered technology from crashed ET ships, that a conglomerate of big defense rogue corporations have operated underground bases on the Moon, Mars and Ceres using slave labor, that humans in these secret programs have been trading since at least half a century with hundreds of other distant civilizations, that a Dark Fleet built in secret by a very large colony of German Nazis in vast caves under the Antarctic ice, with the help of regressive, galactic empire building ETs (Reptilians, Draconians and Ebans), have managed to infiltrate the secret government (Deep State) apparatus and stealthily taken control of most of our planet... until they were kicked out by the end of 2021 from our solar system and a vast network of underground bases on Earth by a coalition of powerful benevolent civilizations, allied in a Galactic Federation of Worlds (GFW), with the help of members of military forces from around the world, opposed to the Nazi infiltrators, who have formed an Earth Alliance that has negotiated secret agreements with extraterrestrial representatives in July 2021 aboard the Ashtar Command's floating military base concealed in the gas clouds of Jupiter, to pave the way for an amazing Star Trek future for humanity, as we are preparing to join the GFW and enter a fabulous era of galactic expansion for humanity.

Just that. How do you bring up-to-speed billions of people who have been left in the dark and to suffocate because of a profligate use of fossil fuels to maintain the cover above the trillions of taxpayer money and drug money that were siphoned off to pay for the parallel buildup of several space fleets by negative and positive secret groups vying for the control of this planet, its resources and the perpetual enslavement or final liberation of its deliberately dumbed down population?

Not an easy task given the profoundly distorting mind-programming through official denial and a mainly negative depiction of aliens carried on in Hollywood movies, TV programs and other media. But there we are. Like it or not, ready or not, we are about to embark on a new era of fast-paced, technological, social, cultural and ultimately spiritual changes that will open the gates to the extraordinary abilities most humans potentially have as physical vessels for the highly intelligent souls inhabiting them all as part of their aeons-long evolutionary process from freshly created souls by the Almighty Source and accomplished participants in Its eternal, omniversal and multidimensional Designs.

Brace yourself for an exhilarating and, for many, dizzying journey as a carefully planned, gradual disclosure process will unfold over the coming months and years. Full Speed ahead!

Alien hunters 'shouldn't be disappointed' by US UFO sightings - UK expert
(FEBRUARY 13, 2023 )

<https://www.jpost.com/omg/article-731431>

UK UFO expert Nick Pope explained that the recent UFO sightings following the Chinese spy balloon debacle make this an "exciting time" for alien hunters.

... Asked whether he had ruled out an extraterrestrial origin for three airborne objects shot down by US warplanes in as many days, Gen. Glen VanHerck said: "I'll let the intel community and the counterintelligence community figure that out. I haven't ruled out anything."

... "We're calling them objects, not balloons, for a reason," said VanHerck. Currently, there hasn't been any known evidence that aliens may have visited Earth. However, the US government has at the very least been taking UFO sightings more seriously, as evidenced by their publicized UAP report in 2021.

Who is the US fighting: Alien UFOs or Enemy Spy-Balloons (02/14/2023)

<https://anomalien.com/who-is-the-us-fighting-alien-ufos-or-enemy-spy-balloons/>

It is already known that the last UFO flew over military installations in Montana and had an unusual octagonal shape. On Sunday, U.S. Senate Democratic Leader Chuck Schumer confirmed live on air that the downed UFOs are completely different from the downed Chinese balloon.

... Meanwhile, the version about aliens should not be discounted yet. In 2022, the US military reported encounters with unidentified flying objects several hundred times. And the head of the UFO government office, Dr. Sean Kirkpatrick, has already issued a statement saying that he has reports from American military experts, intelligence officers, and NASA employees that meetings with unidentified objects have become more frequent. They are detected not only in the air, but also under water and even in space.

... The US military, which tracked that balloon as it crossed much of the country, says it was a sophisticated, high-altitude Chinese spying device -- one of a fleet of such craft allegedly floating around the globe. Recovery teams are scouring the seabed to pull up the debris for analysis. China insists that the balloon, which was big enough to be visible to ordinary Americans from the ground, was merely blown off course while collecting weather data. Chinese authorities also admitted that a balloon spotted over Latin America was one of theirs -- in this case a civilian device for flight tests.

On Monday, Beijing sought to turn the tables by accusing Washington of deploying more than 10 balloons into Chinese airspace over the last year.

"It's not uncommon as well for the United States to illegally enter the airspace of other countries," foreign ministry spokesman Wang Wenbin said during a briefing. The alleged flights were made "without any approval from Chinese authorities." At the White House, National Security Council spokeswoman Adrienne Watson quickly called China's allegations "false" and said that China's high-altitude spying program has violated airspace of "40 countries across five continents."

... The unidentified flying object shot down Sunday over Michigan was described by officials as an octagonal structure with strings hanging off it. However there was no information about how it was guided or propelled. Canada's defense minister, Anita Anand, told CNN the object shot down over Canada by a US plane appeared to be "cylindrical" but said no more information would be given until "we gather the debris." Amid often wild speculation, the US Northern Command's General Glen VanHerck was asked if the government could be sure these were not extraterrestrial craft and he replied: "I haven't ruled out anything at this point." Why such a sudden spate of sightings is another unanswered question.

What we know about the flying objects shot down (February 14, 2023)

<https://www.theglobeandmail.com/world/us-politics/article-balloon-ufo-china-us/>

There is one thing the White House would like you to know about the unidentified flying objects shot down over the U.S. and Canada this past weekend: they probably weren't sent by aliens. "There is no, again, no indication of aliens or extra-terrestrial activity with these recent takedowns," press secretary Karine Jean-Pierre emphatically told a briefing this week.

... Unlike the spy balloon, the three UFOs also did not appear to have any sort of system for steering, meaning the more recent craft were simply being blown around by air currents. There is also no evidence that they were able to transmit signals. All four of the aircraft shot down were unmanned.

<https://www.dailystar.co.uk/news/world-news/mystery-objects-shot-down-over-29200175>

Government officials now believe that the three objects shot down by US Air Force F-35 fighters over the weekend were some "sort of weather balloon" rather than "spy balloons". The mystery objects were blasted out of the sky over North America with the Pentagon initially expressing their view that they were linked to an espionage mission and had originated from China. But ABC News Senior Pentagon Reporter Luis Martinez has posted on Twitter to confirm that stance has now changed.

... A Pentagon official, meanwhile, told ABC News at the time that the object was "cylindrical and silver-ish grey" and gave the "balloon-like" appearance of floating without "any sort of propulsion". Pentagon spokesman Brigadier General Patrick Ryder added that the object did not appear to be manned and that it had been shot down because it posed a "reasonable threat to civilian air traffic" as it was flying at 40,000 feet – around the same height as commercial airliners.

QUESTION: Is this new stance mainly designed to hide a major intelligence failure by the US military?

'Extremely sophisticated' UFOs 'may have been flying over US for years', says expert (Feb 14, 2023)

<https://www.dailystar.co.uk/news/us-news/extremely-sophisticated-ufos-may-been-29211110>

EXCLUSIVE: UFO expert Nick Pope says the flying "objects" being shot down while travelling in US airspace, "could have been flying over for years" before being picked up by the Pentagon

"Extremely sophisticated" UFOs "may have been flying over the US for years", according to a leading expert. UFO expert Nick Pope's comments come after the US military has been called into action a number of times this month to shoot down flying "objects", travelling over American airspace. Pope, who ran the British Government's UFO project for the Ministry of Defence, says the Pentagon appears to be allowing the alien theory to be pushed as it tries to get a handle on the extent of the situation. On Sunday the US military shot down its fourth unidentified flying object in three days, with salvage operations under way and questions being raised about where the objects are coming from. "It's interesting that they are almost pushing the alien narrative a little bit," said Nick.

"I think one reason for that might be because, if the full import is realised at once, I think you're going to have a very angry Congress saying we're wide open to this. "It may have been going on for years." He added that people underestimating the threat the UFOs pose due to the language being used to describe them do so at their peril. Nick said: "Balloon sounds really lo-tech, and you can't say balloon without almost forming in your mind the image of a kid's party balloon. "Even when you see the thing you think, oh well it's just a balloon. "But that's a mistake, because the balloon is just a delivery mechanism.

"The real issue here is the SIGINT, the signal intelligence array, and by all accounts this is extremely sophisticated." He continued: "The SIGINT array searches for communications devices and when it locate them it attempts to, and we don't know quite how successful that was, intercept any calls made on them. "Now they've been very tight-lipped whether this was civilian or military, but if I had to bet I would say this has been an attempt to hack into military conversations on secure communications channels.

"And it doesn't get much more serious than that, when you're taking about espionage." "If these are the ones spotted and shot down, how many more have we missed?" said Nick. "And how far back do we go with this? "Whatever we're dealing with, it's a catastrophic failure of intelligence.

... China's deployment of a massive self-propelled surveillance balloon, which drifted from Montana to South Carolina and came near military nuclear facilities, started an ongoing furor in Washington, D.C., and criticism of the White House's handling of China. Beijing has denied it was spying on the U.S. The spectacle forced the Biden administration to take such encroachments more seriously, and the Pentagon recalibrated its radar systems to track smaller, slow-moving objects. Defense officials said that has caused the military to see more objects that may or may not be a threat, and has led to the sudden rash of shootdowns. "Because we have not yet been able to definitively assess what these recent objects are, we have acted out of an abundance of caution to protect our security and interests," Melissa Dalton, the assistant secretary of defense for homeland defense and hemispheric affairs, said during a phone briefing to the press Sunday.

Top Pentagon staff 'deliberately promoting alien UFO theory to distract us', says expert (14 FEB 2023)

<https://www.dailystar.co.uk/news/us-news/top-pentagon-staff-deliberately-promoting-29204804>

UFO expert Nick Pope, who ran the UFO project for the MOD, says he believes the flying objects over the US are terrestrial, but the Pentagon is almost deliberately being vague

... Mr Pope dismissed conspiracy theories which suggested the UFO was being used as a smokescreen to hide other major stories, by the US Government. "Having worked in the Government, I never really think they're quite as devious as people make them out to be," he said. "I think people have this idea that people are acting like some James Bond villain, whereas in fact it's more like 'Yes, Minister. "I'm not saying that distraction ops don't happen, I mean clearly they do. "What I do think is that just anything involving intelligence agencies is by it's definition going to be shadowy and murky, and they're going to be fairly tight-lipped about things.”

He added: "When they had the press conference yesterday, one of the reporters from the NY Times asked the General, ‘are you ruling out aliens?’ and he said, ‘no I’m not ruling anything out’, and of course people have seized on that. "So there is a lot of UFO-alien hysteria right now. "I believe there's life out there, and I don't rule out the fact that we've been visited.

The top 100 most populous cities are represented on the map. The location of each individual report can be identified by zooming in closer to the map, while large yellow circles represent historic UFO sightings.

If you zoom in the map and click on each dot, you can access thousands of summary reports.

Most UFOs reported by people are either described as triangular in shape (Ex.: “Fast moving high altitude triangle with three lights. No strobe or flashing beacon.” which was most likely the no-longer-so-secret and outmoded (compared to the latest technology developed through trillions invested in black projects) TR-3B Anti-Gravity Spacecraft as reported on military.com the official US military website more on this secret in Top Secret Anti-Gravity Spy Plane - TR3b Black Manta) or as multiple fireballs of various colors but usually orange, with some disc shaped objects and also often simply described as a fast moving bright light in the sky. More rarely people describe a pyramid or rectangular shaped object and even an experience of missing time.

<https://www.npr.org/2023/01/13/1149019140/ufo-report>

... Within the new batch of sightings, the All-Domain Anomaly Resolution Office and the Office of the Director of National Intelligence say, they're focusing on some 171 cases — including some in which objects "appear to have demonstrated unusual flight characteristics or performance capabilities, and require further analysis." The military's UFO database now has info from about 400 reported incidents. The Office of the Director of National Intelligence on Thursday released an unclassified version of the government's new report on UFOs. The annual report stems from a law that also requires the ODNI to send Congress a classified version of the report each year.

... The new numbers indicate a steep rise in UAP sightings: The preliminary report released in June 2021 listed just 144 reports, covering a 17-year period. With the subsequent additions, the All-Domain Anomaly Resolution Office, or AARO, had 510 UAP reports in its files at the end of August 2022.

... The report does not include the word "alien." But weeks before the report was released, journalists asked two senior officials whether their work had turned up any anomalies that might signify beings visiting Earth from outer space. "At this time, the answer's no, we have nothing," said Ronald Moultrie, the undersecretary of defense for intelligence and security. He later added, "We have not seen anything that would ... lead us to believe that any of the objects that we have seen are of alien origin, if you will."

... In recent years, one of the most compelling accounts of a UAP encounter came from retired U.S. Navy fighter pilot Alex Dietrich, who has described seeing a highly unusual object off the coast of Southern California in 2004, after a colleague spotted something "roiling water below us."

"It was this sort of roundish, oblong shape, and it didn't have any apparent flight control surfaces," Dietrich said. "It seemed to be bouncing around and changing course very quickly and in a way that we would not have been able to maneuver our own aircraft or certainly to keep up."

... In a passage that might tantalize or simply annoy UFO enthusiasts, the new report states, "Additional information is provided in the classified version of this report."

Global governments and intelligence agencies around the world have released hundreds of thousands of pages of documents pertaining to the UFO phenomenon over the past few years. These files indicate that unidentified flying objects are commonly tracked on radar and pursued by our own military craft, which are then sent out to take a closer look. The files also reveal there have been sightings of strange objects traveling at tremendous speeds and performing maneuvers that no known aircraft is capable of performing.

... "According to the KGB materials, a quite low-flying spaceship in the shape of a saucer appeared above a military unit that was conducting routine training maneuvers. For unknown reasons, somebody unexpectedly launched a surface-to-air missile and hit the UFO. It fell to Earth not far away, and five short humanoids with "large heads and large black eyes" emerged from it. "It is stated in the testimonies by the two soldiers who remained alive that, after freeing themselves from the debris, the aliens came close together and then "merged into a single object that acquired a spherical shape."

I also recommend to watch her second interview with Michael Salla on March 2021 in which she describes her abduction at age nine by five gray aliens and what ensued when she was rescued from this harrowing experience. Now some may choose to be doubtful about what she claims and that is fine. But for many others who deeply resonate with what she reports, this intuitive resonance is enough to carefully pay attention and hold a position of heartfelt openness, until everything she told us comes to pass and becomes the commonly accepted new reality.

... However, another controversial portion of the bill signed into law on Friday that few in the media have covered relates to what the Pentagon now calls unidentified anomalous phenomena, or UAP, encountered by the military. Specifically, the FY 2023 NDAA includes provisions that could open doorways to greater transparency in government on the issue by providing protections for whistleblowers, in addition to expanding the scope of current investigations by the DOD's All-domain Anomaly Resolution Office (AARO).

The bill also directs AARO to extend the scope of its inquiries further back into history to review potentially relevant government records dating as far back as 1945.

... Today we are witnessing similar ferocious battles this time taking place in the Deep Underground Military Bases (DUMBs) in the US and elsewhere around the planet as the Earth Alliance moves against the Deep State and their Orion Gray allies, after succeeding in a similar cleanup effort in Antarctica as described in previous articles. Val Nek's reference to a ‘Final Countdown’ indicates that time is short for the Deep State and its alien allies, as their strategic situation collapses in the underground war. CLIP

Have Tall Gray alien leaders just been captured by the Galactic Federation? (OCTOBER 3, 2021)

<https://exopolitics.org/have-tall-gray-alien-leaders-just-been-captured-by-the-galactic-federation/>

On September 30, I received an update from Elena Danaan and her extraterrestrial contact, Thor Han Eredyon, concerning a contingent of Tall Gray alien leaders from Orion who had just been captured by the Galactic Federation of Worlds. It was claimed that the Tall Grays were the same aliens that had in the 1950s reached an agreement with the Majestic 12 Group without President Eisenhower's approval, and selling out humanity in the process. If accurate, the capture marked a major step forward in humanity taking back control of the solar system.

... [Thor Han] It is a great catch for the Galactic Federation because for the first time, we are about to triangulate their brain frequency in an attempt to neutralize the frequency transmission from their queen-consciousness, and get to it. As you know, the Nebu function as a hive-consciousness; for the first time in the history of this galaxy, we are going to crack this code. They won't stay here on this ship, they are about to be transported to a safer place.

[Elena] - Why are they kept in the dark?

[Thor Han] - They thrive on ultraviolet light. Our regular light harms them, we need to preserve them alive. All the Nebu try to leave this system. Many have already, hoping to gather forces and come back. Hence comes the need for deactivating their central consciousness. Once disconnected from it, they will be useless, neutralized.

This is a point that both Elena and Megan have made about the Draco Reptilians and Orion Grays now departing our solar system due to intervention by the Galactic Federation upholding their Prime Directive.

The Dracos and Grays have the intention of returning with new allies, and time was short for humanity/the Earth Alliance to prepare advanced planetary defense technologies and a powerful space fleet to protect the rest of the solar system.

... Elena's update from Thor Han appeared to be very good news. The same group of Tall Gray leaders that had reached agreements with the Majestic 12 Group were now in custody. I was intrigued by what their fate would be and asked Elena/Thor Han some questions about it. Here's the relevant Q and A with Thor Han [TH].

Michael: There were 9 of them in capsules. Are they part of a governing Council of some kind or just one or two leaders and their minions?

TH: "They are the equivalent of officers, part of a special high command. They were fleeing Dulce base and trying to escape by the Saturn portal, located near their former Saturn base. They are not part of a council. We need to examine them first, and when we reach satisfaction, we will revive them and take them through the usual procedure. No negotiation. Nebu don't negotiate, they kill the elements of the hive who have been "infected", to use the term they employ."

Michael: Also, will there be negotiations for their release, a trial of some kind, or will they just be experimented on to crack the code, etc?

TH: They have security brain shields we need to crack through. As long as they remain stunned, they can't send a signal to the hive, which would result in their remote removal.

Elena: Removal?

TH: Their consciousness would be instantly removed from their body-envelops and merged back into the global consciousness of the hive, in Uru An Na. It's the equivalent of killing them remotely, getting rid of them before they release more info.

Thor Han's response makes clear why the Orion Grays are a formidable force in space that operates much like the fictional Borg collective does when it comes to terminating the lives of its captured personnel. The reference to Dulce base is also significant since that is the same location identified by the whistleblower, Phil Schneider*, who described a 1979 firefight there that led to a significant number of US special forces being killed by the Tall Grays.

... Somewhere around the middle of December, before Christmas, this should be over. In other words, the battle between the light and the dark, at that point it will just be cleaning up, rounding up, tribunals, things of that nature but the war itself would be over. Most of the regressives [Orion Grays and Draco Reptilians] that have been on the planet have been removed, and those who were still here hiding, they virtually have surrendered because they have no choice.

The information from Alex's Andromedan extraterrestrial contact, Mornay, directly supports the information that the Orion Grays are losing their temporal war with the Galactic Federation, Andromeda Council, and allied extraterrestrial groups.

* Whistleblower Phil Schneider Found Dead After Revealing Alien Agenda
(03/01/2021)

<https://anomalien.com/whistleblower-phil-schneider-found-dead-after-revealing-alien-agenda/>

(...) Mr. Schneider worked extensively on building deep underground military bases, better known as “DUMBS”. He claims that the information about aliens is kept well hidden from the public and that the U.S. military has known about the presence of aliens for a period of time dating back to 1909. He also asserted that more than $500 billion dollars was being allocated every year to black projects dealing with alien matters. He further asserted that 28% of the US Gross National Product was being spent on building underground bases. This “black budget” as he referred to it sidesteps congress completely. There’s little doubt that these projects are still continuing on to this day.

(...) The United States government signed an agreement in 1954* with extraterrestrials granting them permission to experiment on humans and cattle in exchange for technology. This agreement, known as the Grenada Treaty, is a well-documented event.

* Did President Eisenhower Contact with Aliens? (04/15/2015)
<https://anomalien.com/did-president-eisenhower-contact-with-aliens/>

Timothy Good, a previous consultant to Congress and the Pentagon, made a strong claim; he declared that President Dwight Eisenhower met with aliens back in 1954. In accordance to Good, Eisenhower and FBI officers met with extraterrestrials on three different events, and made initial contact with the space Eisenhower and the aliencreatures via “telepathic messages.” The two sides—human and alien—reportedly met at the Holloman Air Force base in New Mexico, and there were “many witnesses.” CLIP

China gives Dark Fleet Antarctica Bases to Earth Alliance to build Space Fleets (SEPTEMBER 27, 2021)
<https://exopolitics.org/china-gives-dark-fleet-antarctica-bases-to-earth-alliance-to-build-space-fleets/>

...VN: I am happy to report that with many successful missions that the bases in Antarctica are cleared and in control of the [Earth] Alliance. The Alliance has worked alongside members of the Federation to clear the Dark Fleet and its allies from its numerous bases. This is not new information but rather relevant to agreements made with China, what you have called the Artemis Accords.

While China is not currently a party to the Artemis Accords, these are the foundation of the multinational alliance that has been created around the US as the hub. Both China and Russia at first opposed the Accords, but after their popularity led to the Galactic Federation choosing the US as the leader of the 14 spacefaring nations and aerospace corporations present at the July Jupiter meetings, China had to consequently shift its position. This was necessary if China was to receive any advanced aerospace technologies from the Federation, after the Draconian Empire (Ciakharr) and Orion Alliance (Tall Grays) had to leave our Solar System, developments which were covered in previous articles. ... Val Nek described in an earlier update publicly released on September 8, that a number of planetary defense outposts were being built for global security and surveillance purposes. These defense outposts (large space stations) would use advanced cloaking technologies, and control an impenetrable shield preventing the Draconians and Orions from future infiltration using interdimensional portal technologies.

The Federation was helping the Earth Alliance build the necessary defense technologies in Earth Orbit and on the Moon, to deal with a potential return of our former planetary overlords. If China was to benefit from the defense technologies being shared by the Federation, it was obliged to cooperate, especially when it came to the former Dark Fleet bases in Antarctica that had been used for nefarious purposes.

... In an earlier article, I described some of the human rights abuses that were occurring at these Dark Fleet and Corporate run Antarctica bases. The scale of the human suffering that occurred was massive, but to date no one has been brought to justice for these crimes. Thankfully those victims that survived are being taken care of in Federation facilities.

Galactic Federation is helping humanity build a Starfleet for Planetary Defense (SEPTEMBER 10, 2021)

<https://exopolitics.org/galactic-federation-is-helping-humanity-build-a-starfleet-for-planetary-defense/>

According to Val Nek, a High Commander with the Galactic Federation of Worlds, Earth is undergoing a major power shift with the exodus of the Dark Fleet and their Draco Reptilian and Orion allies from our solar system. In his latest communication, relayed through one of his contactees, Megan Rose, we learn more about the status of unfolding events on Earth and our solar system, especially concerning the construction of huge motherships in Earth orbit that will serve as international outposts, and the development of a Starfleet for planetary defense. ### Did US Space Command Leader just confirm Jupiter Agreements? (AUGUST 26, 2021)

<https://exopolitics.org/did-us-space-command-leader-just-confirm-jupiter-agreements/>

This week, US Space Command leader, General James Dickinson confirmed that over 100 agreements have been reached with different countries, agencies, and corporations for space related activities. Only a month earlier, General Dickinson allegedly attended a series of meetings above Jupiter where comprehensive agreements were reached between the Galactic Federation of Worlds and 14 spacefaring nations, including CEOs from major aerospace companies.

The goals of the Jupiter Meetings/Agreements were to regulate space activities in our solar system and release advanced technologies to the civilian sector. The US was chosen as the lead nation for heading the Executive Committee of six nations that would be responsible for managing humanity's expansion into the solar system.

Update on Galactic Federation Intervention in our Solar System (AUGUST 6, 2021)

<https://exopolitics.org/update-on-galactic-federation-intervention-in-our-solar-system>

.. Elena discusses how regressive extraterrestrial alliances—the Draco Reptilians and Orion Alliance—have been forced to abandon many of their outposts in the solar system. This has not only impacted the German-led “Dark Fleet” but also the Interplanetary Corporate Conglomerate (ICC), which used Antarctica and Mars as major bases of operations. Both the Dark Fleet and ICC have been forced to evacuate facilities on Earth, Moon, Mars, and elsewhere in the solar system according to Elena. On Mars, this has led to major bases being evacuated and the liberation of a captive slave work force.

Elena's startling information is corroborated by major developments in space as explained by Dr Michael Salla, who gives an account of how the Artemis Accords has led to major spacefaring nations quickly setting up space commands that aim to work alongside the US Space Command. Critically important is the eclipse of large aerospace companies such as Lockheed Martin, Northrup Grumman, Boeing, etc., that were affiliated with the ICC, and the rise of new aerospace companies such as Space X and Blue Origin which are being contracts by NASA to achieve important goals under the Artemis Accords.

The truth that emerges is that the Galactic Federation is encouraging the Earth Alliance/Artemis Accords nations to work with new “progressive companies”, rather than those previously associated with the discredited ICC. CLIP

Secret meetings near Jupiter decide the future of our Solar System? (JULY 19, 2021)

<https://exopolitics.org/secret-meetings-near-jupiter-decide-the-future-of-our-solar-system/>

Three months before the collapse of Nazi Germany during World War II, the three great allied powers, the USA, the Soviet Union, and Great Britain, met at Yalta on the Crimean Peninsula to discuss the post-war order of Europe that would be based on the principle of national self-determination. According to a former professional archeologist and 'contactee', Elena Danaan, a similar set of meetings have just concluded near the planet Jupiter to discuss the new order in our solar system that will emerge with the impending military collapse of the Dark Fleet and its Draconian, Orion, Deep State, and corporate allies.

... What corroborates Elena's remarkable claims here are the recent signings of the Artemis Accords among countries with functioning space programs. These are bilateral accords negotiated between spacefaring nations and the United States that were first signed on October 13, 2020, between the US and seven nations: Australia, Canada, Italy, Japan, Luxembourg, United Arab Emirates, and the United Kingdom.

Since the launch of the Artemis Accords, Brazil, South Korea, New Zealand, and Ukraine have all subsequently signed the Accords. Another major spacefaring nation, India, is also considering joining the Artemis Accords. It's worth emphasizing that the Accords result from several years of negotiations between the US and other nations that began in earnest during the Trump administration and continue under the current Biden administration.

What the Artemis Accords have created is the founding principles of a multinational space alliance that will be established under US leadership. The Accords make possible the pursuit of joint economic and scientific activities in space along with a multinational military alliance that will protect these activities through "safety zones," as I have discussed previously.

The recent signing and expansion of the Artemis Accords, after several years of negotiations, closely matches what Elena claims has just happened near Jupiter, where the Galactic Federation and other progressive space alliances such as the "Andromeda Council" have recently reached agreements. Remote Viewing the Galactic Federation of Worlds (JUNE 26, 2021)

<https://exopolitics.org/remote-viewing-the-galactic-federation-of-worlds/>

In December 2020, the father of Israel's space program, Professor Haim Eshed, created an international media frenzy when he described President Donald Trump communicating with an alliance of extraterrestrial races called the Galactic Federation. Eshed said Trump wanted to disclose the truth about alien life, but the Galactic Federation replied that humanity wasn't yet ready. Eshed's impeccable scientific credentials and intimate knowledge of classified space programs meant that his comments about a Galactic Federation monitoring human affairs had to be taken seriously and could not be easily dismissed.

This raised a host of questions about whether such an extraterrestrial organization truly existed and was poised to openly intervene in human affairs, as Eshed claimed. Even more importantly, how did Eshed's 'Galactic Federation' relate to previous claims by different researchers, insiders, contactees, etc., dating back several decades, concerning the activities of different interplanetary organizations intervening in human affairs or playing a role in the genetic engineering of humanity.

In this two part series of articles, I plan to discuss five interplanetary organizations that have been described by different insiders and contactees that are relevant to any discussion of a Galactic Federation. Three of them can be easily confused as their membership, functions, and activities can overlap but nevertheless have significant differences. Two other interplanetary organizations are often cited as antagonists to the Galactic Federation and are therefore easier to identify.

... The results of the remote viewing sessions yielded many valuable insights into the existence of a 'Galactic Federation of Worlds', and other questions raised by Dr. Brown. This was particularly the case with understanding the Federation's command structure, its internal policy debates over the extent to which it should intervene in human affairs, how its intervention was part of a "temporal war" over the Earth's future, and what private individuals can do to support the Federation's efforts to assist our planet's evolution in a positive direction. Is Mars in the midst of a Planetary Liberation War? (MAY 1, 2021)

<https://exopolitics.org/is-mars-in-the-midst-of-a-planetary-liberation-war/>

On April 30, Elena Danaan, a former professional archeologist whose claims of contact with extraterrestrials from the Galactic Federation of Worlds have gained widespread attention, delivered a bombshell report about an ongoing series of military raids on Mars that aim to destroy the bases of a rival extraterrestrial alliance: the Draconian Empire and the Orion Collective. These extraterrestrial bases were created to suppress the indigenous Mars population; manage the operations of human colonists associated with a German breakaway group called the Dark Fleet (aka Nacht Waffen); and oversee major Earth corporations that have relocated to Mars.

According to Elena, the Galactic Federation has begun helping liberate Mars from the influence of the Draconians and Orions by supporting indigenous Martians with supplies, weapons, and tactical information. The Federation has also been assisting a local resistance movement that exists in the human colonies that have been established on Mars.

While providing logistical and tactical support to local resistance forces, the Galactic Federation has been using its advanced technologies to incapacitate Reptilian and Orion extraterrestrials, thereby enabling the Martian resistance to strike against their extraterrestrial overlords and human minions.

In order to better understand Elena's report, I thought it would be helpful to provide a brief background on Mars and its recent history in terms of covert human colonization and historic resistance by an indigenous Martian population.

The colonization of Mars began in the 1950s when the Draconian and Orion Alliance helped the breakaway German colony that had established bases in Antarctica and the Moon establish the first German bases on Mars, using advanced Haunebu flying saucer craft that initially made up the Dark Fleet.

As a result of agreements between the Eisenhower administration and the German Antarctica Colony \(aka Fourth Reich\), the Dark Fleet's bases on Mars were significantly expanded. Most importantly, the US military provided the Dark Fleet with nuclear weapons that were used against the indigenous Martian population comprising local Reptilians, Insectoids, and other less evolved species that resisted the German colonial expansion and the Draconian and Orion incursions.

With the famous brain drain of the 1960s and 1970s, launched under the cover of the US Apollo Program, the Dark Fleet presence on Mars grew substantially. Millions of people—many of whom were taken from Earth under false pretenses—expanded the German colonies and created new ones in conjunction with major Earth corporations.

These new corporate-run colonies have been called the Interplanetary Corporate Conglomerate and they are run by a 'superboard' comprising retired or serving CEOs from major corporations. The relocation program to Mars has apparently been greatly accelerated over the last few months as the Deep State is on the verge of a major collapse on Earth. This has led to a major exodus by compromised officials, as discussed in my previous article commenting on Elena's information.

With the help of the Draconian and Orion Alliance, the Mars colonies became so technologically advanced that they eventually were trading with up to 900 extraterrestrial civilizations.

The Mars colonies were equipping mercenary forces recruited from all major countries on Earth to join the Dark Fleet for distinct periods of service. The infusion of personnel, equipment, and resources enabled the Dark Fleet to expand its operations significantly.

Soon the Dark Fleet had powerful fleets of spacecraft with well-armed troops that could fight alongside, or on behalf of, Reptilian and Orion extraterrestrials in interstellar wars of conquest. This meant that the bulk of the Dark Fleet's operational forces, at any one time, would be located outside of our solar system. This brief background provides the necessary context to better understand Elena's stunning report.

What follows is my transcript of her report which was delivered verbally and is available on YouTube. CLIP
